

VISUAL ART EXHIBITIONS

FREE ADMISSION

PATTERN RECOGNITION | SEP 2 - NOV 13, 2016

Aaron De La Cruz, Adrian Esparza and Linda Vallejo construct, unravel, and mark to re-encounter the familiar.

6TH CHICANA/O BIENNIAL | DEC 2, 2016 - MAR 12, 2017

An exhibition and public forum to take inventory of and reflect on the continuously emergent energy, critical edge, and aesthetic interventions within Chicano art.

19TH LATINO ART NOW! AUCTION + EXHIBITION

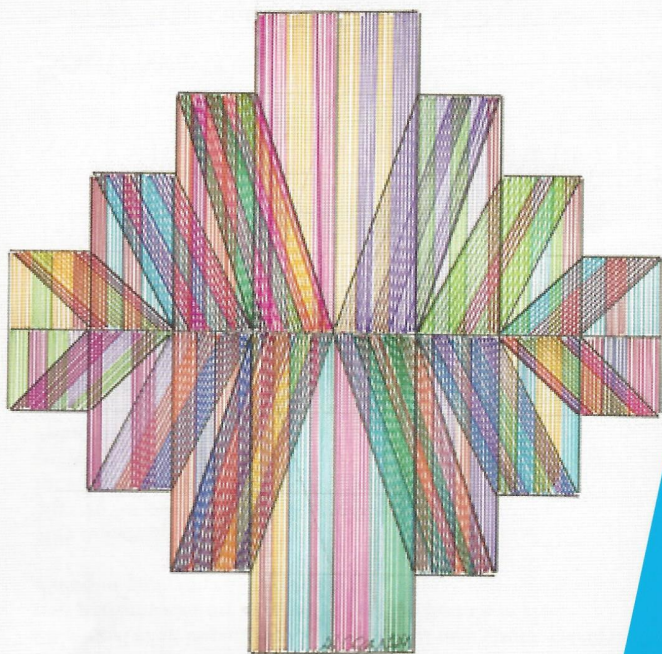

APR 5 - MAY 13, 2017

AUCTION: MAY 13, 2017

A wonderful array of contemporary Latino art from the Bay Area and beyond. Auction proceeds support MACLA's programs.

SHELTER/REFUGIO | JUN 2 - AUG 13, 2017

From the current housing crisis to sanctuary cities and refugee communities, Shelter/Refugio (Refuge) looks at physical and conceptual spaces of shelter and refuge.

Adrian Esparza

Jeff Chang

MUSIC, DANCE, THEATER & LITERARY ARTS

TICKETS AT MACLAARTE.ORG

CREATIVE CONVERGENCE SILICON VALLEY

OCT 6 - 8, 2016

In conjunction with C2SV, MACLA hosts a Cultural District Forum in the Castellano Playhouse, and a Design Crawl that includes visits to the offices of local designers, architects and new SoFA housing developments. Learn more at c2sv.com.

WE GON' BE ALRIGHT: Jeff Chang | OCT 27, 2016

A Conversation on Resegregation + the Movement for Racial Justice Now

Moderated by Queena Kim (KQED) with guest panelists Teresa Alvarado (SPUR), Jose Antonio Vargas (Define American), and Linda Vallejo (Visual Artist, The Brown Dot Project).

SANDRA ANTONGIORGI IN CONCERT

NOV 11 - 13, 2016

Music taking influence from traditional Caribbean sounds, Soul, R&B, and Gitano music to create an expression of World, Latin, and Neo-Soul sound.

DJ LATINIDAD'S LATINO DANCE PARTY

FEB 17 - 19, 2017

Conceived and directed by Mark Valdez, this theater piece is comprised of commissioned works by local and national writers who ask what is Latino identity today.

READING OF ASK A MEXICAN | JUN 16, 2017

An exclusive reading of a new play in development by playwright Anthony J. Garcia in collaboration with Ask a Mexican award-winning author Gustavo Arellano.

SOUTH FIRST FRIDAYS

AT 8PM, FREE

The South First Fridays art walk in downtown San José is a self-guided evening tour through galleries, museums, and independent creative businesses. At MACLA you can browse our latest exhibition and dance with us. Our performers represent the best of the Latino diaspora in the Bay Area.

CUNAMACUÉ | AUG 5, 2016
Afro-Peruvian Music And Dance

GABRIEL NAVIA & SULKARY | SEP 2, 2016
Latin Fusion Music

MAKRÚ | OCT 7, 2016
Latin Flamenkito Music

AGUACERO | NOV 4, 2016
Puerto Rican Music And Dance

ALAFIA DANCE | DEC 2, 2016
Afro-Haitian Dance

SAMBAXÉ | FEB 3, 2017
Brazilian Music And Dance

SILVESTRE MARTINEZ | MAR 3, 2017
Afro-Oaxacan Jazz Music

VALVERDE DANCE | APR 7, 2017
Andean Music And Dance

SWEET SPICE | MAY 5, 2017
Latin Music Standards

SONIDO CLASH | JUN 2, 2017
Future Latino Sounds

DMC Studio at MACLA

YOUTH AND FAMILY PROGRAMS

EVENTS FOR YOUTH AND FAMILIES

DIABETES AWARENESS DAY | OCT 22, 2016

In conjunction with the Bigger Picture Initiative, MACLA's DMC Studio presents a poetry slam and discussion designed to address the rising epidemic of Type 2 diabetes among youth.

FAMILY ART DAY | APR 29, 2017

Families and children can enjoy a full day of engagement with the arts through hands-on activities, performances and guided gallery tours.

DMC STUDIO

This free arts education program is dedicated to mentoring Silicon Valley youth (ages 13-18) in 21st century skill development through multimedia production, including professional video and sound production, photography, and slam poetry.

VISIT: www.maclaarte.org/programs/dmcstudio

TAKE A CLASS

MACLA's year-round adult classes are a fun and accessible way to explore your creative side. No experience necessary.

VISIT: www.maclaarte.org/calendar/buy-tickets

Gabriel Navia & Sulkary