

Marquand Books

Marquand Books designs and produces fine illustrated books for art museums, galleries, trade publishers, artists, collectors, and architects. Marquand's books have won numerous awards for design, production, printing and manufacturing.

Although they have produced several impressive illustrated general history and reference books, the vast majority of the volumes Marquand Books produces cover aspects of art, architecture, design, and photography.

Marquand's books have received numerous regional and national awards from, among others, AIGA 50 Best Books, American Association of University Presses, CA Magazine, Bookbuilders West, and the American Association of Museums. Two of their books have won George Wittenborn Memorial Book Awards. One has won the Alfred H. Barr, Jr. Award.
