GALERIA NUEVA PRESENTS "PUERTAS DE LUZ"
--featuring Eduardo Carrillo and Juan Angel Castillo--

Los Angeles, Calif.-- Eduardo Carrillo and Juan Angel Castillo will present an exhibition of works on paper from March 28 through May 9, 1992, at Galeria Nueva located in the Los Angeles Civic Center. An Opening Reception is planned for Saturday, April 4, 6 - 9:30 pm.

"Doors of Light" are openings to the artworks of Angel Castillo and Eduardo Carrillo in an exciting exhibition of works on paper. These two artists hold in common their roots in Baja California.

Juan Angel Castillo is renowned in Baja, California as the foremost artist of landscapes and portraitures. He has held over 40 exhibits throughout Mexico and abroad. As this time, he will exhibit approximately 20 portraits where he searches beyond art fads, social status or profession by bringing us close to an intimate world of another human being. He seeks to discover the personality, emotion and passions of his characters. "Una puerta del alma" (a doorway to the soul) may be a metaphorical description of these works. We feel the mystery of life and death in the presence of his artworks.

Eduardo Carrillo's watercolor paintings are "puertas de luz" (doors of light) into the atmosphere, panorama and peoples of Baja, California. The doors open to the friendly early morning light of a corral with a cow or the glaring later light of "Telegrafos." The world seems to float, titillate, disappear, or hold on tenuously to form and space in these studies of luminous Baja Peninsula. Mr. Carrillo has a superbly established reputation among fine art collectors and art critics in the United States. He was educated at UCLA and presently teaches at U.C. Santa Cruz. He has exhibited with twentieth century masters from Latin America and the United States for many years.
