The mission of Galeria Las Americas is to present a "Full Spectrum" of art and artists. There is a reservoir of sophisticated and mature artists, views and visions within the Latino Americano and Chicano arts community.

Hundreds of artists have spent ten, twenty and thirty years dedicated in the development of meaningful careers as the carriers of artistic vision and cultural image. SOL DE VERANO will focus on ten of these virtuoso painters and printmakers.

The incredible variety of style, image, medium, and philosophy is astounding to the lay as well as seasoned viewer and collector. The caliber of the art work to be displayed in SOL DE VERANO will please even the most critical connoisseur.

Suzanne Muchnic of ARTnews stated, "Galeria Las Americas hopes to shock the visitors into understanding that a rich resource of material is being overlooked. For every big name on view, dozens of unheralded artists display a wide range of talent".

La Opinion, Expectaculos, April 1995, says, "In Galeria Las Americas' exhibition, the public is given the opportunity to view beautiful and unique artistic works that leave a powerful impression on the individual".

Maria Elena Fernandez, L.A.WEEKLY 'PIC OF THE WEEK', 1994, remarks, "Linda Vallejo and Galeria Las Americas are on a mission to give contemporary Latino artists greater exposure".

El Economico, Press Telegram, Long Beach shares, "...a great number of talented artists who explore new artistic dimensions, a variety of mediums, and expressive realities".
