

THE MANY FACES AND VOICES OF OUR LADY OF GUADALUPE

A multi-dimensional symposium exploring the meanings of Guadalupe for contemporary Chicanas and Chicanos

DECEMBER 4, 1998
FRIDAY, 9:00 AM TO 3:00 PM

PERFORMING ARTS CENTER
Cal State University, Northridge

FREE ADMISSION

This symposium is funded in part by:

Departments of Religious Studies, Chicano/a Studies, Women's Studies, The College of Humanities,
Office of Graduate Studies, Research and International Programs, and the Student Union Program Council

Panelists will include

Linda Vallejo and Xochitmilco Portillo, Chicana/Indigena ceremonial leaders

Lillian Robles, Juaneno elder

Mita Cuaron, visual artist

Raquel Salinas, performance artist

Isabel Martinez, visual artist

Rosa Martha Zarate, songwriter and community organizer

Commentators

Dr. Lara Medina, Religious Studies, CSUN

Dr. Luis Leon, Religious Studies, Carlton College

FOR MORE INFORMATION CALL

Dr. Medina at (818) 677-3395

Parking / $1.75 in Student Lots / Obtain permit from the Info Booth at Lindley/Nordhoff or at Praire/Darby